Something to consider upon submission: Santa Fe ArtWorld does not accept submissions that include any of the following: murder, mutilation, rape, pornography, violence of any sort whether clearly depicted, implied or spelled out, or any other content which might be considered distasteful or offensive in nature. If an artist is accepted as or is a member to SFAW production or posted to artist's personal website, or association with any direct links with such to the artist's site in the future is reason for dismissal as member within SFAW.

Please contact us if you are near Santa Fe and need digital images of your art for submission. SFAW provides great discounts to artists for this service.

We not only demand quality work from our artists, but expect the highest level of professionalism from our artists regarding any contacts acquired through SFAW. Our professionals deserve deferential treatment. Any artist receiving reports of offense without resolution will be removed from site without refund. All efforts will be made to resolve issues.
